

Create the account

1. Click, "join your colleagues" (1)
2. Enter the new user's name, email address, law firm name, and create a PacerPro password (2) for the user
 1. The user can modify their PacerPro password later through their PacerPro profile
3. Enter the PACER username and password you typically use to search the government site (3)

Send the user their account information

1. The user can log-in at www.pacerpro.com
2. Their username: the email address you entered for them
3. Their password: the password you created on screen 2